Tonya Washington

VISITORS: Scott Price, Bobbie Cox, Tim Bryant, Kristi McKinnon, County Clerk's office; Larry Roberts, Elections Area Manager, Election Commission

---

The meeting was called to order by Chairman Walker. A quorum was determined; Chairman Walker noted that Commissioner Snider would be present at a later time.

Approval of Meeting Minutes, October 1, 2010

Moved by Commissioner Wyrick; seconded by Commissioner Snider. All in favor; motion passed unanimously.

Chairman Walker stated that County Judge Buddy Villines released an executive order stating that campaign signage shall not be affixed to county property during early voting.

Commissioner Wyrick stated his opposition to this executive order.

Melinda Allen will notify candidates regarding the county judge's order.

Commissioner Wyrick made a motion that the Election Commission draw up a resolution opposing the order. Commissioner Snider questioned why the county judge feels this is necessary, then seconded. All in favor, Snider and Wyrick. Chairman Walker abstained.

Commissioner Wyrick questioned if the Commission agrees with the County Judge. He believes the County Judge does not have the constitutionality to give an executive order pertaining to the posting of campaign signage at polling locations.

Commissioner Walker stated that it is the duty of the County Judge to submit executive orders pertaining to the county.
