Business

Certification of Logic and Accuracy Testing Results for the June 19, 2018 General Primary Election and Sherwood Special Election

Commissioner Davis moved for the approval of the logic and accuracy testing results for the Preferential Primary/Nonpartisan General Election; seconded by Commissioner Boyle. Motion passed by voice vote.

Director Poe brought it to the attention of the Commissioners there was an error in the header of the logic and accuracy testing results. The header read "Preferential Primary/Nonpartisan General Election" it should have been "General Primary Election”. Commissioner Davis moved to rescind and destroy the previously signed certification; seconded by Commissioner Boyle. Motion passed by voice vote.

After the header was corrected to reflect June 19, 2018 General Primary Election, Commissioner Davis moved for the approval of the logic and accuracy testing results; seconded by Commissioner Boyle. Motion passed by voice vote.
